September! Already, so soon --where did the summer go and why doesn't winter flee as fast? As I write to you the sun is shining warmly, the animals are grazing on the grass, the rooster is crowing. They are all doing what they do best. Isn't that what is asked of us -- to do our best?

September -- The Covid 19 virus is still with us. Life has changed because of this pandemic but we are all still in the arms of God. This is the beginning of a school year. Please pray for our children that they may remain safe and secure in the midst of this ever-changing time. Pray that they may eagerly learn and discover new things either at home or at school. Please pray for our teachers that they remain healthy and safe and eager to teach either at a distance or in the classroom.

As church worship returns to its later time of 10:30, we are still wearing masks and keeping distance. Our bell choir has stepped up to the challenge of playing once a month while our singing voices remain silent. (We do hum, however.) Our small church continues its outreach and ministry through the Thrift Shop, take out suppers, and sending food and support to those in need of a boost. All our committees will resume after their August break. Our lives as a congregation have changed in the way we do things, but we continue to serve in the name of Christ supporting each other along the way. I pray that our lives are full of the Spirit and that we are able to hear those whispers and nudges of God.

However, maybe now is the time for each of us to pause and consider all the gifts of God that surround us today. I find myself often needing to take a deep breath and pause to take in these gifts and to be thankful. This is a good time to discover, or rediscover, who we are and what we like to do the best.

I shared this poem once before and I offer it to you again.

All I really have to do
is listen.
God, the Holy One, will speak.
I will know when it is right to move
and which direction to take.
In the meantime,
just listen.
Listen to the words and to the silence.
Enjoy the journey as it unfolds today.
Enter into preparation with expectancy.
Be assured that God is with us all the way.

May God bless you all richly.

Many thanks for the lovely cards and phone calls I received during my recent recovery.
Phyllis Gregson

SEED impressions

Create autumn-themed artwork using items from plants.

What you need:

- Seed pods, nuts, pine cones
- Mixing bowl
- 2 cups flour
- 1 cup salt
- 1 cup warm water
- Adult help

What you do:

1. Go on a nature walk and collect seeds with interesting textures.
2. In the bowl, mix flour and salt. Gradually add water. On a table, knead the dough. (If too dry, add more water; if too sticky, add more flour.)
3. Flatten a ball of dough and stamp impressions in it with the seeds.
4. If desired, bake for several hours at 150 degrees until dry and hard. Or, to reuse dough, store in an airtight container up to 6 months.

Many thanks for the generous contributions we received for our Christmas in July project. We were able to provide three families with some summer support. We also sent books to 4th grade students in one Texas classroom, offering a personally selected book and a note of encouragement for the school year. Our mask makers have now made over 1,000 masks for individuals and health care facilities! Personal home cooked meals are being delivered to a list of folks weekly. Our Mission Committee is busier than ever!
