

The Circuit Rider 2025

Sunday worship 10:30 am    Church office: (207)925-1321    Email: info@lovellucc.org

Dear Friends,

The first Sunday of 2026 in worship I shared one of my Old First Church on the Common sermons. It was a story about the old lighthouse keeper who kindly shared his oil with those who lived on the island. Many came knocking on his door and for various reasons were running low on oil for their lamps, their stoves and furnaces. Being a kindly man, the old keeper shared his oil with all who came knocking.

Then during a tremendous winter storm when he went to the oil storage building the oil drums were empty and in the middle of the night the light went out! He was promptly removed from his post with the words, "You were given the oil for one reason... 'to keep the light burning'."

How often do we give and give of ourselves until we have little left to give, even to ourselves?

This year with all that is going on in the world, our nation, and within our communities and families, I encourage you to make sure you have taken care of yourselves as well as those who need you. Make sure you have enough to keep your light burning so that you may be a source of light and warmth to those within your circle.

The following is a piece by Eleanor Hamilton, who is the minister at Dumbarton Parish Church (Church of Scotland). It came in a Facebook post from the Northumbria Community "a dispersed, worldwide, network Christian Community, committed to a new way for living."

Yours seeking to serve out of the abundance God provides each of us,

Pastor Neil Wilson

Who sustains the sustainer when the cups are empty and the giving keeps going When hands keep breaking bread but never stop to taste When words are offered yet the soul is running on echoes We ask how to nourish others as if we are not bodies too as if weariness is weakness as if rest is optional
But even Jesus stepped away even Jesus ate even Jesus slept Bread for the body not rushed not leftover not eaten standing up Word for the soul
not performed
not polished
but received slowly honestly
Grace is not meant to pass through us without touching us
Love is not meant to drain us dry
So we pause
We eat
We listen
We breathe
And in the quiet gift of being filled we remember we were never meant to sustain ourselves alone
